POSTKARTE.

Ambulatory, &c., Gloucester Cathedral. Founded in 1080, this noble edifice was mainly built in the 13th century. It is celebrated for its massive Norman masonry, the beautiful choir, the east window (the largest in the world), and the magnificent tower 275 feet high. The Ambulatory is a fine piece of architecture, and the Lady Chapel (1225, rebuilt 1457-99) one of the largest in Great Britain.
